

music as therapy international

With the end of 2022 in sight, we are sending one final Partner Bulletin. Thank you to all our Partners for the brilliant work you continue to do, and we hope the festive season brings an opportunity for some well-earned rest.

This month, we are looking ahead to the ways we can support all our UK Partners in 2023, including an in-person meet-up for our Interactive Music-Makers, and an invitation to all our UK Partners to request tailored support. Whether you'd like to refresh, re-start, or consolidate your music-making activities in the new year, we would love to hear from you!

From all the team at Music as Therapy International, we wish you a merry Christmas and a peaceful start to the new year.

Calling all Interactive Music-Makers!

Would you like to meet your Interactive Music-Making peers in person, network, and top up your skills? We are registering interest for a potential half-day, in-person IMM CPD event in 2023, to be held in London. If you are an Interactive Music-Maker and may be interested to attend, please let us know via this this 10-second poll link or by clicking below!

Would you like an in-person, half-day event in 2023 to share ideas, gain new resources, and network with fellow Interactive Music-Makers?

Can we support your music-making in 2023?

Have you lost confidence or momentum in your music-making activities? Would you like support starting up after a long pause, or to inspire colleagues to use more music in their care practice? We can help! Whether you'd like a call with a music therapist, a support visit to your setting, or just some friendly email support, let us know by filling out our email template here.
